

Board of Directors

The role of the Board of Directors is to oversee the business of the organisation to ensure it operates in line with our Mission and Values.

Inasmuch Community Directors are representatives of the Sussex Inlet community, elected on the expertise they bring to our skills-based Board, which is imperative for good governance.

We are proud to introduce our current members on the Inasmuch Board, beginning with the Chair and Deputy Chair, and continuing with the other five directors in alphabetical order.

Sandra Gray, Chair

Organisational Governance Committee Member
Finance Committee Member

Qualifications

Associate Diploma in Applied Science
Diploma in Front Line Management

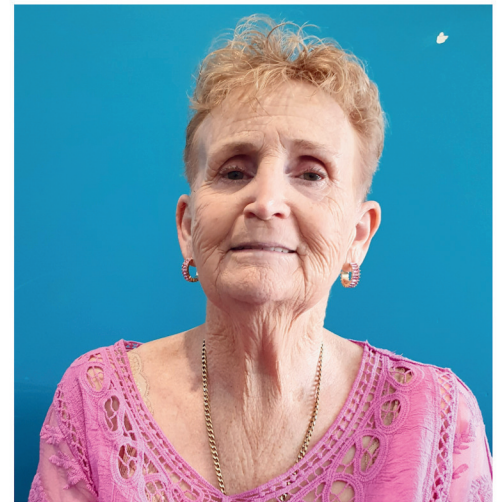

Sandra has 35 years experience in senior management for the vocational education and employment sector. Currently working as Employment Facilitator for Local Jobs Program (Illawarra & South Coast), she brings extensive project management, business & financial management, marketing and sales skills to the Board.

Debbie Ferrier, Deputy Chair

Organisational Governance Committee Member
Finance Committee Member

With 30 years experience as Senior Business Manager in the pharmaceutical and technical sectors, Debbie has highly developed planning and organisational abilities, project and resource management skills, expertise in leading individuals and teams through change, and budget, profit and loss management to deliver sustainable and profitable outcomes.

Debbies' business expertise is matched by her enthusiasm and she is a welcome addition to the Board.

Lanna Barrett

Clinical Governance Committee Member

Lanna is a retired Registered Nurse with more than 30 years experience working in residential aged care, both in Australia and Europe.

For 10 years, Lanna was an Executive Care Manager in the private and not-for-profit aged care sectors in Sydney. This role primarily involved clinical management of an aged care facility, ensuring optimal care was provided and adherence to Aged Care Standards.

Lanna brings to the Board extensive clinical experience and invaluable knowledge of quality and accreditation standards in aged care.

Helen Breen

Clinical Governance Committee Member

Qualifications

Master of Social Work, Monash University

Post Graduate in Dying, Death & Palliative Care, Sydney University

Bachelor of Social Work, Deakin University

Helen has 20 years' experience with NSW Health working in the Aged Care Assessment Team, as the Social Worker for the Milton Ulladulla Hospital and 17 years' with the Shoalhaven Cancer Care Service. Her experience counselling older people who are transitioning to home care services and residential aged care, and her commitment to social justice and human rights, enable Helen to embrace critical changes in the aged care industry and she brings extensive clinical skills to the board.

John Kennedy

Organisational Governance Committee Member

Qualifications

Bachelor of Building Science & Site Management,
London Institute of Building

Completing his Building qualifications and apprenticeship in the UK, John emigrated to Australia to become a Licensed Builder in 1982, followed by years of experience as Site Manager on large commercial projects in Sydney and Construction Manager for Hartford Homes. As Building Compliance Manager for Family and Community Services for the past ten years, John brings to the Board a wealth of knowledge on building compliance.

Cheryl Warnock

Finance Committee Member

Qualifications

Bachelor of Arts in Communication, University of Canberra

Cheryl's professional experience spans 33 years in accounting and business administration, with nine years in public practice before moving to the private sector. Although her family and business commitments prevented her from finishing her Masters in Business (Accounting), she went on to co-own and operate an IT company based in Canberra for 23 years before retiring to Sussex Inlet.

Cheryl brings to the Board a wealth of experience in all aspects of business accounting and management.

Michael Warnock

Organisational Governance Member

Qualifications

Bachelor of Arts in Computing Studies, University of Canberra

Michael has 30 years' experience in the Information Technology industry, including 23 years as owner of an IT company in Canberra which provided services to small and medium sized businesses. In addition, he has 11 years' experience in the hospitality industry, including 4 years as a Merimbula restaurant owner.

With many of his clients being not-for-profit organizations, Michael brings valuable technical, customer service, and business skills to the board.
